Re: Report on Internal Control required by SEC Rule 17a-5(g)(1)

In planning and performing my audit of the financial statements of Integrity Investments, Inc, as of and for the year ended December 31, 2012, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, I considered the company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing my auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, I do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

Also, as required by Rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), I have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding securities. This study included tests of such practices and procedures that I considered relevant to the objectives stated in Rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under Rule 17a-3(a) (11) and for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3. Because the Company does not carry securities accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, I did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. Making quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications, and comparisons and recordation of differences required by Rule 17a-13
2. Complying with the requirements for prompt payment for securities under Section 8 of Federal Reserve Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Integrity Investments, Inc.
Report on Internal Control
Required by SEC Rule 17a-5(g)(1)

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgements by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the SEC's previously mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practice and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that the assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit the preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in internal control and the practices and procedures referred to above, error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to risk that may become inadequate because of changes in conditions of that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

My consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraph and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. I did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that I consider to be material weaknesses, as defined previously.

I understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the SEC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and my study, I believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraph of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2012, to meet the SEC's objectives.

Integrity Investments, Inc.
Report on Internal Control
Required by SEC Rule 17a-5(g)(1)

This report is intended solely for the information and use by the Board of Directors, management, the SEC, (Designated self-regulatory organization), and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 17a5(g) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in their regulation of registered brokers and dealers, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

In accordance with your request, I have audited your anti-money laundering procedures for compliance with regulations regarding those matters. In connection with my audit, I have not encountered any receipts of cash or foreign currencies, checks or direct wires going through the company's accounts. There have been no direct deposits of funds from clients as all of the investment activity has been made directly into the funds that the company is responsible to oversee. I therefore attest that the company has fully complied with the anti-money laundering regulations.

Respectfully submitted,

To the Board of Directors
Integrity Investments, Inc
Venice, Florida

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of Integrity Investment, Inc. which comprise the balance sheet as of December 31, 2012, and the related statements of loss and accumulated deficits, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financials in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Report on the Financial Statements

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

An integral part of the audit was to determine if there were any material inadequacies in the accounting system, internal controls, and procedures for safeguarding securities and practices and procedures specified in Reg. 240-17a-5. Please refer to the Supplemental Report as required under the Security and Exchange Commission Act of 1934 and (SEC) Rule 17a-5(j).

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Integrity Investments, Inc. as of December 31, 2012, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
31-Dec-12

NOTE A- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Integrity Investments, Inc., was incorporated on September 8, 1992, and acted as a broker-dealer and distributor for the Valiant funds. Beginning in July 2007, a commission-sales agreement was entered into with the Dreyfus Cash Management Family of Funds to promote their products to Integrity's clients. The former investors in the previous Valiant Funds were rolled into the Dreyfus family of funds. Other marketing, distribution and service agreements have also been used in promoting the products to Integrity's clients.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are carried at cost. Depreciation is provided using the straight-line method for financial reporting purposes and accelerated MACRS 200% DB for federal income tax purposes.

Income Taxes

Beginning in 1992, the company's operations were consolidated with their wholly owned subsidiary, Integrity Management & Research, Inc. for income tax purposes. The companies have not accrued and deferred taxes for timing differences resulting from different book and tax depreciation methods because of the large not operating loss carry forward.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE B-INCOME TAXES

In the years ended December 31, 1992, through 2 2012, the parent and subsidiary have cumulative net operating losses for both income tax and financial reporting purposes.

The operating losses have been available to offset taxable income for subsequent years through the year ended December 31, 2012. No tax benefit was recorded on prior financial statements because of the uncertainty of future results of operations.

In the current year, no tax provisions (expense) has been recorded. Also, because of the continuing uncertainty of results of operations, no future tax benefits have been recorded

NOTE C-INVESTMENTS AND RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Integrity Investments, Inc., is the parent to Integrity Management & Research, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary. While Integrity Management & Research, Inc. was in a development state from inception through December 1994, considerable organization and administrative expenses were incurred which required additional funding by the parent company. The parent company acted as the promoter for the Valiant Fund shares and provided shareholder services through June 2007. In return, it received payments from the subsidiary for these services. These arrangements for services provided to the subsidiary ceased as of June 30, 2007. Beginning in July 2007, the company commenced using the Dreyfus Family of funds for their customers.

Another marketing, distribution and service agreement was completed as of January 11, 2010 with a company known as Fundcore Finance Group LLC, which will use Integrity Investments, Inc. to provide certain marketing, distribution and services with respect to the Integrity Relationships and the Fundcore Products.

The initial term of the agreement was from November 1, 2009 to October 31, 2010 with an automatic renewal of one year unless otherwise advised by Fundcore. The fees derived for services rendered were considered consulting fees. The arrangement with Fundcore terminated in May 2011.

NOTE D- CAPITAL STOCK

There were no additional shares of common stock issued or additional paid-in capital received during the year ended December 31, 2012.

NOTE E-LONG TERM SUBORDIATED LOAN PAYABLE

The Company received $ 125,000 through the issuance of a 12% subordinated loan dated October 1, 1994. The original terms of the loan specified that the principal sum of $ 125,000 be repaid on October 31, 1997 together with interest.

The subordinated loan agreement for equity capital was submitted to the NASD and was found acceptable as of October 28, 1996.

Permission was also requested from the NASD to allow for the subordination of the accrued interest on the subordinated loan. NASD granted permission on February 17, 1997, to allow this change to be made. The most recent subordinated loan agreement was approved on November 10, 2010 whereby, the loan principal and accrued interest up through November 7, was combined for a new loan principal of $ 336,475 with interest thereon payable at the rate of 5% per annum for a three year period with a maturity date of November 8, 2013. A further provision provides for the scheduled maturity date to be extended in each year by either the Lender or the Broker/Dealer without further action unless on or before the day Thirteen Months preceding the scheduled maturity date, the Lender shall notify the Broker/Dealer in writing, with a copy to FINRA, that the maturity date shall not be extended.

See accompanying notes

Further, Appendix D of section Rule 15c3-1, requires the prior written approval of NASD before any repayment of a subordinated agreement can be made. Accordingly, unsecured advances to the lender during the term of the agreement are not permitted since such advances would constitute unauthorized repayments.

Further provisions covering these agreements are contained with 17CFR240-15C3-1 to C3-3a.

NOTE F-OFFICE-CONDO BUILDING LEASE AGREEMENT

The company sold their condominium office in March 2007 with the buyer agreeing to assume the outstanding mortgage balance at that time. The buyer was a related party. Curcio Properties, LLC., whose controlling shareholder is a controlling shareholder in Integrity Investments, Inc. It has been determined that the real estate sale was a bonifide real estate/arm'slength transaction.

The buyer agreed to enter into a lease for a period of five years beginning March 13, 2007 and terminating on the 12th day of March : 2012. A new 5 year lease was consumated on March 12, , 2012. Terms of the lease call for a " Base Rent " for each lease year in the sumof $ 33,717.96, payable in consecutive monthly installments of $ 2,809.83, each together with applicable sales tax. The company is also responsible for the payment of all condominium fees, assessments, insurance, real estate taxes, maintenance and utility bills for said premises.

Beginning February 1, 20110, February 1, 2011 and February 1, 2012, the company was informed due to an adjustment in the landlord's adjustable rate loan with their bank, there were reductions in the monthly lease rate beginning February 1, 2010, February 1, 2011 and again on February 1, 2012. The new monthly rent for the remaining 11 months of 2012 was $ 1,900.17. All of the previous terms and conditions remain the same under the new lease except for the new monthly rate.
